Report of Paintball Game Challenge with KBU Engineering
Students' group
Rotaract Club of KBU International College

On the 13th of December 2009, the Rotaract Club of KBU International College had a first fellowship project ever in the charter year - a friendly paintball game with engineering students' group of KBU International College. The Event was attended by 10 club members and participated by 26 Engineering students from KBU International College. It all started with us meeting up in front of KBU International College main entrance at 8am. Then we convoy to Canyon Paintball located in The Club @ Bukit Utama which is around 5mins from the college.

After the registration and safety brief by the owner Mr. David Guch, we chose our ideal bullet proof jacket, mask and marker and continue with the shooting warm up session. After the training session, the game started around 10am. 3 games later on different type of battle fields, lunch is served and fellowship session started around 2pm. A small birthday party was made for one of the engineering friend.

We got back to the gear after the party, we continue with 2 more games on another field. The wonderful game day ended around 5pm, Rotaractors and engineering students had a great fellowship and better understanding on each other. We took photos before leaving the canyon paintball club. All in all, it was a tiring, fun and to some, a painful experience for Rotaractors from Rotaract club of KBU International College.

Report on Awesome Bianca's 18th Birthday Outing Rotaract Club of KBU International College

On the 2nd June 2010, the incoming Vice President Danny Siah from Rotaract Club of KBU International College and Community Director Yang Ha Lim from Rotaract Club of HELP University College had organized a surprise birthday outing for Bianca Ong – the incoming secretary of RACHUC at Ampang Look Out Point. The event was attended by 4 club members and participated by 3 Rotaractors from RACHUC, 2 Rotaractors from RACKJ, a German friend under Rotary Student Exchange Programme and a Rotaractor's friend. The event was held at 7.30pm until 10.30pm with the wonderful Kuala Lumpur's night view.

It all started with us meeting up in One Utama around 6pm then we convoy to Ampang and search for the exact location of Look Out Point. We reached the look out point around 7.30pm after a long traffic jam stuck in Ampang, but fortunately we never miss out the beautiful sunset of Kuala Lumpur. Rotaractors were having photography session over there while waiting for the arrival of Eric and Ben from RACKJ and star of the day – Bianca. The dinner and chit chat session are all started at with arrival of Bianca at 8.30pm.

Eric and Ben were finally arrived around 9.30pm then they came into us with a birthday cake and birthday song by the restaurant management. Bianca cut the cake after her birthday wishes then reached the climax of the night – birthday gift presented by us. Video is taken for the happy and memorial moment. The gang was leaving around 10.30pm and continues of another session. The gang went to a Mamak stall for supper and fellowship. Rotaractors had a fantastic and memorial night, and we believe it used to bring a closer friendship for each other.

Report of Participation in G12 International Night Dinner with Rotarians Rotaract Club of KBU International College

On the 20th March 2010, the Rotaract Club of KBU International College had participated a fellowship dinner with Rotarians – G12 International Night dinner hosted by Rotary Club of Bandar Utama, Rotary Club of Subang, Rotary Club of Damansara West and Rotary Club of Kota Bharu. The Event was attended by 4 club members and participated by 5 Rotaractors from Rotaract club of HELP University College and fellow Rotarians. The event was held at 7.30pm until 10.30pm in Holiday Villa Subang with the theme ‘One World, One Heart’.

The dinner is all started with arrival of VIP and roll call at 7.30pm, following by dinner served at 7.45pm. Rotaractors met up with Rotarians from different Rotary clubs including Rotaract Club of Titiwangsa, Rotary club of Damansara, Rotary Club of Petaling Jaya, etc. The performance session was started at 8.00pm, starting by Qu Cheng singing performance and following by the Sze Chuan change of mask performance. It was presented by a secondary school boy, who is also an Interactor under sponsoring of Rotary Club of Subang, the brilliant performance created the climax for the dinner.

A Latin Dance performance was presented at 9.30pm then following by the photography session. Rotaractors enjoyed the dishes and atmosphere very well. Rotarians and Rotaractors were having fantastic fellowship conversation during the dinner. It is the best chance of bring a tight relationship among Rotarians and Rotaractors, and we hope Rotaract club of KBU International College has the chance to participate more fellowship session with Rotarians in the short future.

Report on 3D2N Food Hunting Trip in Ipoh Rotaract Club of KBU International College

Rotaract Club of KBU International College organized a 3 days 2 nights (11th – 13th June 2010)

Food Hunting Trip to Ipoh - the capital city of Perak state. The objective of the trip is to hunt and taste the nice food in Ipoh and fellowship. The trip was participated by 4 club members and 3 rotaractors from other clubs.

The journey started with us meeting up in the Centre point main entrance at 1.30pm then we take our lunch in Subway restaurant of Centre Point before depart from Bandar Utama to Ipoh. After lunch, we depart for the two and a half journey to Ipoh. We stopped at

Tapah rest house for toilet break and snack time, we get back on track after a 20min there. The gang is finally arrived to Ipoh around 5.30pm via Simpang Pulai highway exit and heading to the Ipoh City Centre. We tasted the stew chicken feet first popular food ever in Ipoh – Funny Mountain Tau Foo Fa. After that we head to Wayne's house for welcoming dinner. We tasted the great cuisine cooked by Wayne's mom and take a short break in his house. We went to the famous shopping centre in Ipoh – Kinta City around 8pm. We left the Kinta City around 10.30pm and head to the house of Wayne's grandparents. We loaded all our bags and luggage in the house then we went out for supper at Kam Kee stew chicken feet restaurant around 11pm. Most of us went bed early after the supper with the tiring and exhausting mood, in fact, it was a first warm get-together night.

We started our second day in Ipoh at 7am - we went to the most famous Dim sum place in Ipoh – the New Foh San Dim Sum restaurant for breakfast. Shrimp dumplings, Shao-mai, steam rice noodle roll, chicken porridge, etc were our wonderful Cantonese style breakfast. After the great breakfast, we bought some traditional sweets before we depart to the Gunung Lang Recreation Park around 10am. The recreation park offered us a chance of getting closer to the Mother Nature. The gang took a lot of pictures there at the same time we enjoyed the peace and quiet atmosphere in the park. The gang left the park and departs to another famous shopping centre in Ipoh – Ipoh Parade at 12pm. We had a karaoke session in K-Box in Ipoh Parade shopping centre. After a 3-hours singing time, we left the ‘box’ and departed to the most famous roasted duck restaurant in Ipoh – Yeong Wai Roasted restaurant. We went home for a shower break and came back to the town for dinner with Rotaractors from Rotaract club of Penang at 7pm. We had a great dinner and fellowship with Rotaractors from RAC Penang when we tasted the trademark food of Ipoh – Lou Wong Bean Sprouts Chicken. After a great dinner with Rotaractors from Penang, the gang went for a movie – The A-Team in Kinta City at 9pm.

Early in the morning of the departure Sunday, Rotaractors went to the old Town for breakfast. The gang went to the Sin Yoon Loong – the oldest and the earliest as well as the founder of Ipoh white coffee. After one more round of Tao Foo Fa, we headed back Kuala Lumpur with tired body but yet a heart full of satisfaction. Overall, the objectives for the trip had been accomplished.
